

Casual Thank You Email to Friend for Support

Hey [Friend's Name],

I just wanted to shoot you a quick message to say thank you for being there for me during [situation]. Seriously, I don't know what I would've done without you.

Whether it was listening to me vent at 2 AM or just making me laugh when I needed it most, you always knew exactly what I needed. That's what real friendship looks like, and I'm lucky to have you in my corner.

Let's grab coffee soon—my treat! I owe you at least a hundred cups at this point.

Thanks again for everything.
