

Humorous but clear authorization email

Subject: Let My Buddy Get My Birth Cert, Please

Hey Registrar Team,

Life's full of surprises—I like realizing I need my birth certificate in the next 2 hours. Since teleportation isn't a thing yet, I'm sending my reliable friend [Friend's Full Name] to pick it up for me.

They're cooler than me and more punctual. Let them through, please!

Much appreciated,
