

Application Decision Appeal Letter

Subject: Appeal for Reconsideration - Application ID: [Number]

Dear Appeals Committee,

I am writing to respectfully request reconsideration of the admission decision for my application to [University Name]. While I understand the competitive nature of your admissions process, I believe there are significant factors that may not have been fully considered in my initial application.

Since submitting my application, I have achieved [new accomplishment/award/grade improvement]. Additionally, I would like to provide context for [specific circumstance] that may have impacted my earlier academic performance. During my [time period], I faced [brief explanation of challenge] which temporarily affected my [grades/activities/test scores].

Despite these challenges, I have demonstrated resilience and growth. My recent [achievement/improvement] reflects my true academic potential and commitment to excellence. I have also [new volunteer work/leadership role/relevant experience] which further aligns with [University Name]'s values.

[University Name] remains my top choice because of [specific reasons]. I am confident that I would thrive in your academic environment and contribute positively to the campus community through [specific contributions].

I have enclosed [additional documentation] to support this appeal and would be grateful for any opportunity to discuss my application further.

Thank you for reconsidering my application.

Respectfully,

[Your Full Name]
