Subject: Credit Denial Letter

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to inform you that, unfortunately, your recent application for credit has been denied by [Your Company/Bank Name]. We understand that this news may be disappointing, and I want to assure you that the decision was made following a thorough review of your application.

The primary reason for the credit denial is based on the information obtained from your credit report, which indicates [mention any specific negative factors, if applicable, such as late payments, high debt utilization, or a history of bankruptcy]. Our credit assessment process carefully considers various financial factors to ensure responsible lending practices and to protect the financial interests of both our customers and the institution.

In compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), you have the right to request a free copy of your credit report from the credit bureau that was used in making this decision. If you find any inaccuracies on your credit report, you have the right to dispute them directly with the credit bureau.

At [Your Company/Bank Name], we value each applicant and their desire to secure credit. If you believe that there was an error in our decision or if your financial situation has changed since your last application, you may consider reapplying at a later date.

In the meantime, we recommend taking steps to improve your creditworthiness, such as:

1. Reviewing your credit report for accuracy and addressing any errors or discrepancies.
2. Paying bills on time and avoiding late payments.
3. Reducing outstanding debts to lower your debt-to-income ratio.
4. Avoiding unnecessary credit applications to prevent multiple hard inquiries.

If you have any questions or need further clarification regarding the decision, please do not hesitate to contact our customer service department at [Customer Service Number] or visit one of our local branches.

Thank you for considering [Your Company/Bank Name] for your credit needs. We appreciate the opportunity to serve you, and we hope that your financial situation improves in the future.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
