

Preliminary digital message asking for distribution details

Subject: Inquiry About Distribution Process

Hello [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I came across your products recently and was impressed with their quality and potential in our market. Before proceeding further, I wanted to check if you are currently appointing distributors in [Region/Market].

If so, could you kindly share details about the process, eligibility requirements, and general terms of distribution? This information will help us evaluate how we can move forward with a possible partnership.

Thank you for your time and assistance.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
