

Termination due to breach

Subject: Immediate Termination of Distribution Agreement

Dear [Distributor's Name],

This letter serves as formal notice of termination of your distribution rights with immediate effect. The decision has been made due to serious breaches of our contractual terms, including [list specific breaches]. These violations undermine the trust and obligations established in our agreement.

You are instructed to immediately stop all sales and marketing activities of our products. Please return all outstanding inventory and materials to our warehouse at your expense within [number] days. Any pending payments or financial settlements must be completed without delay.

We regret that this action has become necessary but emphasize that the integrity of our brand must remain uncompromised.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Your Position]

Get more templates here: <https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/distributor-termination-letter>