

Team Recognition Email

Subject: Incredible Work, Team!

Hi Everyone,

I wanted to recognize the absolutely fantastic job you all did on the product launch last week. This was a massive undertaking, and every single person on this team contributed something valuable. From design to development, from QA to documentation, from marketing to customer support—each department brought their A-game. The coordination and collaboration I witnessed were exemplary.

Special shoutout to everyone who worked late nights and adapted to last-minute changes without complaint. Your dedication and positive attitudes made this success possible.

We should all be proud of what we accomplished together. Celebrate this win—you've earned it!

Thank you all,

Lisa Nguyen

Project Director
