Dear [Letter Writer's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to request your support in providing a letter of recommendation for my application to medical school. As someone who has played a significant role in my academic and professional development, I believe your insight and perspective would add immense value to my application.

I am applying to pursue a career in medicine with a strong focus on [your areas of interest or specialty, if applicable], and I am committed to making a positive impact in the field of healthcare.

Throughout our time together, whether in [mention relevant class/research/clinical experiences], I have deeply appreciated your guidance, mentorship, and the knowledge you have imparted.

If you are willing to write a letter of recommendation on my behalf, I have attached my current CV, personal statement, and a brief summary of our interactions and experiences together. These documents should provide you with a comprehensive overview of my background and aspirations.

I kindly request that you address the following aspects in your letter:

1. My academic abilities, particularly in [relevant subjects].

2. My clinical experiences, if applicable, and any notable observations you made during those experiences.
3. My strengths as a potential medical student and future physician.
4. Any unique qualities, skills, or accomplishments that you believe set me apart.
5. Examples of my dedication, work ethic, and teamwork skills.
6. My potential for success in medical school and beyond.

The deadline for submitting letters of recommendation is [mention application deadline]. I would greatly appreciate it if you could submit the letter directly to [mention medical school's application portal or address for submission].

Please know that your time and effort in supporting my medical school aspirations are genuinely valued. If you require any further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you once again for considering my request. I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to have worked with you and hope to continue making a difference in the field of medicine.

Sincerely,

[Your Full Name]
