

Heartfelt Rejection Letter

Subject: Outcome of Your Application

Dear [Candidate's Name],

Thank you for going through the entire interview process with us for the [Job Title] role. We recognize the effort, preparation, and time commitment you have made throughout the multiple rounds of discussion.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we have selected another candidate. This decision was a difficult one, as your qualifications and experiences were highly commendable.

Please know that this outcome does not diminish your abilities, and we encourage you to stay connected with us for future roles. You have much to offer, and we wish you great success in your career path.

With gratitude,

[Your Name]
