

Long-Distance Apology Love Letter

Subject: Across the Miles, My Apology

Dearest [Name],

Being far away makes it even harder when we fight. I can't be there to hold your hand or look into your eyes while I apologize, so I'm writing this letter instead.

I know my words or actions hurt you, and for that, I'm truly sorry. I love you, and distance doesn't change that—it only makes my heart ache more when we're not okay. Please forgive me and let's promise to use this time apart to strengthen, not weaken, what we have.

I'm counting down the days until I can hold you again.

With all my love,

[Your Name]
