- Dear [Recipient's Name],
- I am writing to inform you of the termination of your employment with [Company Name]. It is with regret that we have come to this decision, but after careful consideration, we have concluded that it is in the best interest of the company to part ways.
- Effective Date of Termination: [Date]
- Last Working Day: [Date]
- Reason for Termination:
- [Explain the reason(s) for the termination briefly and objectively. It could be due to performance issues, violation of company policies, restructuring, downsizing, or any other valid reason.] Employee Responsibilities:
- During the notice period, you are required to fulfill your duties and responsibilities as usual and in a professional manner. You will be expected to return any company property, documents, or
- confidential information in your possession before your last working day.
- Final Compensation and Benefits:

You will receive your regular salary until your last working day, as well as any accrued but unused vacation days, if applicable. Further details regarding your final paycheck and benefits will be communicated to you by the HR department.

Exit Interview:

We request you to participate in an exit interview to provide us with your feedback on your employment experience and any suggestions you may have for the improvement of the organization. The HR department will schedule the interview at your convenience.

Return of Company Property:

Please ensure that all company property, including but not limited to laptops, access cards, keys, and any other equipment issued to you during your tenure, is returned to the HR department on or before your last working day.

Confidentiality Obligations:

You are reminded of your ongoing obligations to maintain the confidentiality of any proprietary or sensitive information of the company even after the termination of your employment.

Severance Package (if applicable):

[If the company offers any severance package or benefits, outline the details here. If not applicable, you can omit this section.]

Thank You:

We would like to express our appreciation for your contributions and efforts during your time at [Company Name]. We wish you success in your future endeavors.

If you have any questions or need further information, please don't hesitate to contact the HR department.

Sincerely,
