Subject: Can't Wait to Celebrate With You!

My dearest [Names],

I just received your beautiful wedding invitation and I'm practically bursting with excitement! Of course I'll be there - I wouldn't miss watching you two lovebirds tie the knot for anything in the world.

I still remember when you first told us about each other, and now here we are planning your wedding! It feels like yesterday and forever ago all at once. I'm so proud of the love you've built together and can't wait to see you both glowing on your special day.

Count me in for [Date] at [Venue]. If you need any help with last-minute preparations, just say the word - I'm here for whatever you need.

All my love and congratulations,

[Your Name]
